VIETNAM VISA ON ARRIVAL

The visa on arrival (VOA) is only available for certain nationalities, and it may be subject to change. It is always a good idea to check with the Vietnam embassy or consulate in your country before traveling to Vietnam to confirm the latest visa requirements.

Please follow the below steps:

Step 1: Send us the passport information of travelers (fill data in an Excel file or by email or passport copy)

Step 2: Aurora will submit the visa application to the Vietnamese Immigration Department

Step 3: Once approved, we will send you the Visa On Arrival Approval Letter

Step 4: Before the flight, travelers need to print the Visa On Arrival Approval Letter and bring it with them, so that they can abroad to fly to Vietnam. Upon arrival at the Airport in Vietnam, present the Approval Letter, Passport, Photos, and Application Form, and pay the fee to get your visa done at the Visa On Arrival counter.

Important note

- Make sure that the passport has at least 6 months of validity from the entry date ahead. You must indicate your arrival date. If you are not sure what date you will fly to Vietnam, you can give us your proposed date of arrival. You can come to Vietnam some days later than the approved date, but not earlier.
- You need to prepare some cash (US dollars) for the stamping fee since no credit cards are accepted.
- Once processed, Visa service cannot be canceled, so we require you to make full payment in advance and non-refundable.

VIETNAM E-VISA
